Memorandum

TO : SAC [redacted]

DATE: 12-5-63

FROM : SAJOHN T. REYNOLDS

SUBJECT: [redacted]

On 12-5-63 [redacted] advised that when he was contacted by Secret Service they asked him several times if he knew anything about the address of 544 Camp St. He had been aware that this place had about a year or two ago been used by ARCHIE SMITH. Afterwards he recalled that in the summer of 1963 LOUIS GUEVARA, brother of EDUARDO GUEVARA, Concrete Controls, 233 Chartres St, had used the hall on the fourth floor at 544 Camp St to exhibit office supplies. GUEVARA is strictly anti-Castro and he has no information to indicate that OSWALD might have had any connection with him or that he might have contactdd him but he was merely passing this along since GUEVARA is Cuban and had been at that address for a while this past summer.
